Charles A. Hayes Center (The FIC)

Located at 4859 S. Wabash Ave, the Charles A. Hayes Family Investment Center (known as "the FIC") is conveniently located in the Bronzeville-Grand Boulevard community. The center is a staple in the community and houses organizations that offer unique services. It was named for Chicago's late Congressman Charles A. Hayes and previously known as Times Square and Bacon's Casino

Are you searching for a venue to host your company meeting, workshop, or training session? The FIC is the perfect location to meet all your requirements. Whether you require space for a gathering or a networking event, the FIC is a meticulously maintained venue on the south side of Chicago, offering top-tier amenities and much more.
