

LevelUp (CHA's Family Self-Sufficiency program) enables participating families to grow financial assets while working towards educational, professional, and personal goals. Building on HUD's Family Self-Sufficiency program model, LevelUp is a goal-focused program that moves participants forward on an individualized path toward economic independence.

LEVELUP

6 STEPS TO ECONOMIC POWER

Program Highlights

New Rule, Same Program

All current public housing or voucher holders age 18 years or over can accrue LevelUp savings by achieving specific milestones or activities.

Reach Goals, Build Savings

LevelUp savings accumulated by current participants is over $1,000,000.

Make Progress, Get Money

The average LevelUp payout earned by graduates was nearly $6,000.

Work the Program, Achieve Success

All LevelUp graduates receive an increase in wages from employment and a personal savings account.

What are your goals?

- Improve my credit
- Build a savings nest
- Reduce or pay off debt
- Earn a post-secondary degree
- Pursue a new career
- Start your own business

LevelUp coaches will help you reach your goals. ENROLL TODAY!

How to Enroll

REGISTER to attend an information session to learn about this great opportunity.

Our information sessions provide an overview of the program, including supports offered to participants, setting goals and how to earn escrow savings.

To attend an information session, visit:

www.thecha.org/LevelUp or scan the QR code.

You must register online for a session to receive the meeting link.

LevelUp, Resident Services

Info Line: 312.786.3188 | Email: levelupfss@thecha.org | Web: www.thecha.org/LevelUp